A Workshop on ‘Human Values and Professional Ethics’

A Workshop on ‘Human Values and Professional Ethics’ was organized by Department of Applied Sciences & Humanities on 26.02.2020 for B.E.I/IV students. The coordinators, Dr I.Satyasree, Dr M.Sucheta, Mrs K.Jaya Sheela and Mr .P.Phanindra Bharadwaja organized the workshop.

Objectives

- To identify the most essential human values such as compassion, courtesy, courage, empathy, generosity etc.
- To develop a critical ability to understand professional ethics namely, commitment, creativity, integrity, decision-making, problem-solving etc.

Outcomes

It is expected that students will

- recognize the significance of human values and make them a way of life
- develop a sense of responsibility and commitment towards their profession and lead a life of honesty and integrity

Dr M Sucheta introduced the theme and spoke on Objectives and Outcomes of the workshop. Mr. Phanindra Bharadwaja spoke on Human values and discussed the most important virtues to be inculcated by students. Dr I.Satyasree spoke on Professional Ethics and highlighted the various mechanisms such as RTI, Whistle-blowing, and Sting Operations by Media, that are available to curb unethical practices prevailing in the current scenario. Mrs. Jaya Sheela made the students answer the questions given in the worksheet. The workshop concluded by vote of thanks by Ms. D.Manvi of ECE-1.
